

Carey Pascoe
Sr. Travel Manager, Corporate
Procurement
Dolby Laboratories, Inc.

Carey Pascoe is a Corporate Travel Manager with over 20 years industry experience. She currently works for Dolby Laboratories, Inc based in San Francisco, California managing global corporate travel, card and meetings. Prior to Dolby she held several consultative roles within the travel industry working for travel management and travel related software companies. Carey is a member of the Global Business Travel Association and San Francisco Meetings Advisory Council Committee.

She is a subject matter expert on topics involving corporate card programs, T&E cost reduction, policy compliance and travel risk management. Carey has successfully built corporate travel and expense programs from the ground up. She specializes in fitting culture to policy and in exploring new and innovative processes that support best in class programs.