

Grant Caplan
President
Procurigence

Grant has been in managed travel for over 28 years. His focus and passions for client engagement, transparency in business, commitment to education, industry relations, and integrity are part of his every project. Working primarily with Global Fortune 500 companies, his expertise includes global TMC, technology, sourcing, and global program integration.

Grant serves on GBTA's Government Relations and has served on their Travel Technology Committees, and has presented at over 40 travel industry events, including for GBTA's Mexico and other chapters. He has been quoted and published numerous times in The New York Times, US Business Review, The Washington Post, Business Travel Executive, Business Travel News and other publications.

He founded Travel Consulted, spent 2 years with TCG Consulting, and was a founding partner with Consulting Strategies (13 years). Grant graduated from The American University in Washington, DC and worked on Capitol Hill at the U.S. House of Representatives.